

Mount Sinai

Office for Diversity and Inclusion

Mount Sinai Health System

Profiles in PRIDE

Recognizing Champions in LGBT Health at Mount Sinai and Beyond

Pride Month 2017

Mount Sinai Health System salutes and thanks these employees for their leadership and dedication to LGBT health equality.

Diana E. Rosario

Champion for LGBT Health in Queens

Diana E. Rosario is a Population Health Care Coordinator at Mount Sinai Jackson Heights Queens and Co-Chair of the MSO LGBT Employee Resource Group, where she promotes LGBT rights in and out of work and is bringing awareness about LGBT-sensitive health care and community resources to staff and patients.

Pride Month 2017

Mount Sinai Health System salutes and thanks these employees for their leadership and dedication to LGBT health equality.

Hansel Arroyo, MD

Leader in Transgender Affirmative Psychiatry

Hansel Arroyo, MD is Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai and the Director of Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine, in the Institute for Advanced Medicine, where he is leading the development of transgender competent mental health services for the MSHS Center for Transgender Medicine and Surgery.

Pride Month 2017

Mount Sinai Health System salutes and thanks these employees for their leadership and dedication to LGBT health equality.

Robbie Freeman, RN

Leader in LGBT-Competent Health care

Robbie Freeman, RN, the Director of Clinical Operations at The Mount Sinai Hospital, serves as a member of the Center for Transgender Medicine and Surgery (CTMS) Steering Committee, and is leading the CTMS research data registry team. He is on the Board of Directors for the Phillips School of Nursing at MSBI where he is an advisor on adding LGBT content to the nursing school curriculum.

Pride Month 2017

Mount Sinai Health System salutes and thanks these employees for their leadership and dedication to LGBT health equality.

Warren Mascarenas

Advocate for LGBT Equality

Warren Mascarenas is the Client Service Executive in the Mount Sinai Central Billing office and is active in Mount Sinai's LGBT Employee Resource Group activities and events. As a gay Filipino American, Warren shares his personal experiences in coming out to breakdown stereotypes both inside and outside the workplace.

Pride Month 2017

Mount Sinai Health System salutes and thanks these employees for their leadership and dedication to LGBT health equality.

Rose Otero, RN

Educator and Ally in LGBT-Affirmative Nursing

Rose Otero, RN, is PCS Nurse Education Manager at Mount Sinai Beth Israel where she is lead educator in providing the module "Enhancing the Transgender Patient Experience." Since February of 2016, Rose has provided this training module to several hundred nurses and other employees at MSBI and NYEC.

Pride Month 2017

Mount Sinai Health System salutes and thanks these employees for their leadership and dedication to LGBT health equality.

Charlie Solumdu

Activist for LGBT Health

Charlie Solumdu is the Linkage Coordinator at Mount Sinai Adolescent Health Center, where he navigates newly diagnosed HIV-positive youth into medical care. In June 2016, he co-founded the Tool Shed, NYC's first and only in-person support group focused on transmasculine lower surgery, hosted at the Center for Transgender Medicine and Surgery.

For updated information on events contact the ODI at diversity@mountsinai.org.